RIDDLE OF THE WEEK

A man is pushing his car along the road when he comes to a hotel. He shouts, "I'm bankrupt!" Why?

Answer will be in next weeks newsletter

Answer to last weeks riddle

I can be cracked, I can be made. I can be told, I can be played. What am I?

Answer: A Joke!

TRIVIA QUESTIONS OF THE WEEK

What is the reason for Tashlich?

The first one to come to Rabbi Eli with the answer by the Kiddush Will get something special—if you try to tell Rabbi Eli the answer beforehand, you will be disqualified.

Last weeks trivia question: Name three things we do to confuse the Sattan!

The correct answer was given by Levi Rusanov:

1. We don't blow the Shofar on Erev Rosh Hashanah.
2. We blow an extra 30 Shofar blasts after davening on Rosh Hashanah.
3. We don't Bench the Chodesh of Tishrei.

STORY OF THE WEEK

"I want you to listen to this story of this Rabbi Laine" He went on to say how a few years ago it was rosh hashana and he and his family attended services the first night and day of rosh hashana. by the second day he wasn't interested in going to shul (again) and decided to go have fun with his fam. He mentioned to his wife "lets get in the car quickly because I have a feeling the Rabbino and family will be passing our house on the way back from shul" He attempted to rush his family in the car before rabbi laine came but sure enough as hes getting in the car, he sees a black hat approaching getting closer and closer to his car.

>From his words: " I started sweating profusely and shaking. I turned off the engine and opened the window. The rabbi didn't utter a sound. He nodded to us and whipped a shofar out of his pocket. He started tekiah..all the sounds felt like forever. My wife had tears streaming down her face. He finished, put the shofar back in his pocket, said gut yom tov and left."

This guy turned to us and said that the very next shabbos they kept their first shabbos! What a powerful tory of the epitome of what a shliach can do and the power he has from the meshalayach!
