STORY OF THE WEEK

When the Mezritcher Maggid (Reb Dov Ber) was a small child of five, his family home burst into flames. The child was upset by his mother's display of grief and he asked her: "Mother, do we have to be so unhappy because we have lost a house?" "God forbid," she replied, "I am not grieving because of the loss of the house, but over the loss of the document of our family tree burnt in the fire. That document traced our descent to Rabbi Yochanan HaSandlar who was a direct descendant of King David." "If so," replied the child, "with Hashem's help, And what does that matter! I shall get you a new family tree which begins with me!"
