Last weeks trivia

question:

Why do we say Hanei-rois Halolu on the first night when there is only one candle?

The correct answer was given by Joshua

Ganger:

- 1) When we do a mitzvah Hashem does as well, so it's our candle and Hashem's.
- 2) We are talking about all the candles that the Jewish people are lighting.
- 3) Because we light the Shamesh.

Happy Chanukah, friends.

STORY OF THE WEEK

Reb Yechiel Hachohen Halperin once visited the Rebbe Rashab wearing ripped clothes. The rashab told him that it was not befitting for a Talmid Chacham to be walking around in such a manner. Reb Yechiel responded to the Rashab that "he wasn't a Talmid Chacham anyways!" The Rebbe looked at him carefully and told him a Chassid is a Talmid Chacham.

Lesson: Each and every single one of us are walking around with the title of Chossid. We have to make sure that we make the right impression upon all those who see us.
