MAN OF THE PEOPLE

*How One Man Stemmed a Revolution and Won
Over a Nation*

It's an angry scene. Future hopes nursed for generations have been shattered. A furious mob wants to oust the incumbent leader. People are wailing on the sidelines. The pressure cooker is about to burst. One man steps in and saves the day. Caleb was his name. What did he say and how did he do it? Find out in this exciting class.

SOPHISTICATED ANIMAL?

The Total Is More than Just the Sum of the Parts

It's an age-old question: Is man simply a sophisticated animal, or an entirely different species? Let the critics cluck and the cynics chuckle, but Moses has a message to deliver: It's definitely the second option. Find out how his showdown with a rabble-rousing Korach centered on just this question.

MOSES'S DOUBLE STANDARD

The Drawbacks of Authenticity

Sure, we'd all like to believe that we behave in private just as we do in public—but oftentimes, that's simply not the case. So, are we just bald-faced hypocrites? Should we make our public actions consistent with our private ones and let it all out? A sad story of Moses and the rock tells us a thing or two about this tension.

A ZEALOUS ACT

Extreme Measures for Extreme Times

You've seen it before: the zealous guy who is quick to act and take extreme measures when everyone else is too afraid to move. When's the right time to be "that guy"? And when should we back off and just let things be? A desert showdown between a zealous student and a brazen prince gone astray holds the answers to these tough questions.

UNIVERSE

Sundays, 7:30-9:00 PM

Next week (Sunday, June 3):

Is Choice Real?

In the sixth lesson of What Is?
*Rethinking Everything We Know about
Our Universe*, we will explore the question, "Is Choice Real?"

If G-d already knows what we will do tomorrow, is "free choice" nothing more than an illusion? And with so many factors outside of our control influencing our choices, how "free" could they possibly be? Ultimately, to fully experience choice, we need to better understand the source of our deepest desires, as well as the nature of the choices we face in our lives.

In "Is Choice Real?" the sixth and final lesson of What Is? Rethinking Everything We Know about Our Universe, we will discover the true meaning of free choice.

Join us on Sunday, 7:30-9:00 PM, at Anshei Lubavitch, as we discover the true meaning of free choice. more about our Creator.
